proposing a constitutional amendment increasing the amount of the residence homestead exemption from ad valorem taxation for public school purposes.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 5. Section 1-b(c), Article VIII, Texas Constitution, is amended to read as follows:

(c) The amount of ~~$40,000~~ ~~[$25,000]~~ of the market value of the residence homestead of a married or unmarried adult, including one living alone, is exempt from ad valorem taxation for general elementary and secondary public school purposes. The legislature by general law may provide that all or part of the exemption does not apply to a district or political subdivision that imposes ad valorem taxes for public education purposes but is not the principal school district providing general elementary and secondary public education throughout its territory. In addition to this exemption, the legislature by general law may exempt an amount not to exceed $10,000 of the market value of the residence homestead of a person who is disabled as defined in Subsection (b) of this section and of a person 65 years of age or older from ad valorem taxation for general elementary and secondary public school purposes. The legislature by general law may base the amount of and condition eligibility for the additional exemption authorized by this subsection for disabled persons and for persons 65 years of age or older on economic need. An eligible disabled person who is 65 years of age or older may not receive both exemptions from a school district but may choose either. An eligible person is entitled to receive both the exemption required by this subsection for all residence homesteads and any exemption adopted pursuant to Subsection (b) of this section, but the legislature shall provide by general law whether an eligible disabled or elderly person may receive both the additional exemption for the elderly and disabled authorized by this subsection and any exemption for the elderly or disabled adopted pursuant to Subsection (b) of this section. Where ad valorem tax has previously been pledged for the payment of debt, the taxing officers of a school district may continue to levy and collect the tax against the value of homesteads exempted under this subsection until the debt is discharged if the cessation of the levy would impair the obligation of the contract by which the debt was created. The legislature shall provide for formulas to protect school districts against all or part of the revenue loss incurred by the implementation of this subsection, Subsection (d) of this section, and Section 1-d-1 of this article. The legislature by general law may define residence homestead for purposes of this section.

SECTION 6. The following temporary provision is added to the Texas Constitution:

TEMPORARY PROVISION. (a) This temporary provision applies to the constitutional amendment proposed by the 87th Legislature, 3rd Called Session, 2021, increasing the amount of the residence homestead exemption from ad valorem taxation for public school purposes.

(b) The amendment to Section 1-b(c), Article VIII, of this constitution takes effect January 1, 2022, and applies only to a tax year beginning on or after that date.

(c) This temporary provision expires January 1, 2023.

SECTION 7. This proposed constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the voters at an election to be held May 7, 2022. The ballot shall be printed to permit voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment increasing the amount of the residence homestead exemption from ad valorem taxation for public school purposes from $25,000 to $40,000."

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Texas, 87th Legislature, 3rd Called Session, 2021, That Senate Rule 12.03 be suspended in part as provided by Senate Rule 12.08 to enable the conference committee appointed to resolve the differences on Senate Bill 1 (an increase in the amount of the exemption of residence homesteads from ad valorem taxation by a school district and the protection of school districts against the resulting loss in local revenue) to consider and take action on the following matter:

Senate Rule 12.03(4) is suspended to permit the committee to add text on a matter not included in either the house or senate version of the bill by adding the following new SECTIONS to the bill:

SECTION 1. Section 11.13(b), Tax Code, is amended to read as follows:

(b) An adult is entitled to exemption from taxation by a school district of $40,000 [~~$25,000~~] of the appraised value of the adult's residence homestead, except that only $5,000 of the exemption applies to an entity operating under former Chapter 17, 18, 25, 26, 27, or 28, Education Code, as those chapters existed on May 1, 1995, as permitted by Section 11.301, Education Code.

SECTION 2. Section 46.071, Education Code, is amended by amending Subsections (a), (b), and (c) and adding Subsections (a-1), (b-1), and (c-1) to read as follows:

(a) Beginning with the 2015-2016 school year and continuing through the 2021-2022 school year, a school district is entitled to additional state aid under this subchapter to the extent that state and local revenue used to service debt eligible under this chapter is less than the state and local revenue that would have been available to the district under this chapter as it existed on September 1, 2015, if the increase in the residence homestead exemption under Section 1-b(c), Article VIII, Texas

Constitution, and the additional limitation on tax increases under Section 1-b(d) of that article as proposed by S.J.R. 1, 84th Legislature, Regular Session, 2015, had not occurred.

(a-1) Beginning with the 2022-2023 school year, a school district is entitled to additional state aid under this subchapter to the extent that state and local revenue used to service debt eligible under this chapter is less than the state and local revenue that would have been available to the district under this chapter as it existed on September 1, 2021, if any increase in the residence homestead exemption under Section 1-b(c), Article VIII, Texas Constitution, as proposed by the 87th Legislature, 3rd Called Session, 2021, had not occurred.

(b) Subject to Subsections (c), (d), and (e) ~~[(e)-(e)]~~, additional state aid under this section through the 2021-2022 school year is equal to the amount by which the loss of local interest and sinking revenue for debt service attributable to the increase in the residence homestead exemption under Section 1-b(c), Article VIII, Texas Constitution, and the additional limitation on tax increases under Section 1-b(d) of that article as proposed by S.J.R. 1, 84th Legislature, Regular Session, 2015, is not offset by a gain in state aid under this chapter.

(b-1) Subject to Subsections (c-1), (d), and (e), additional state aid under this section beginning with the 2022-2023 school year is equal to the amount by which the loss of local interest and sinking revenue for debt service attributable to any increase in the residence homestead exemption under Section 1-b(c), Article VIII, Texas Constitution, as proposed by the 87th Legislature, 3rd Called Session, 2021, is not offset by a gain in state aid under this chapter.

(c) For the purpose of determining state aid under Subsections (a) and (b) ~~[this section]~~, local interest and sinking revenue for debt service is limited to revenue required to service debt eligible under this chapter as of September 1, 2015, including refunding of that debt, subject to Section 46.061. The limitation imposed by Section 46.034(a) does not apply for the purpose of determining state aid under this section.

(c-1) For the purpose of determining state aid under Subsections (a-1) and (b-1), local interest and sinking revenue for debt service is limited to revenue required to service debt eligible under this chapter as of September 1, 2021, including refunding of that debt, subject to Section 46.061. The limitation imposed by Section 46.034(a) does not apply for the purpose of determining state aid under this section.

SECTION 3. Subchapter F, Chapter 48, Education Code, is amended by adding Section 48.2543 to read as follows:

Sec. 48.2543. ADDITIONAL STATE AID FOR HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION.

(a) Beginning with the 2022-2023 school year, a school district is entitled to additional state aid to the extent that state and local revenue under this chapter and Chapter 49 is less than the state and local revenue that would have been available to the district under this chapter and Chapter 49 as those chapters existed on September 1, 2021, if any increase in the residence homestead exemption under Section 1-b(c), Article VIII, Texas Constitution, as proposed by the 87th Legislature, 3rd Called Session, 2021, had not occurred.

(b) The lesser of the school district's currently adopted maintenance and operations tax rate or the adopted maintenance and operations tax rate for the 2021 tax year is used for the purpose of determining additional state aid under Subsection (a).

SECTION 4. The comptroller of public accounts may adopt rules for the purpose of implementing and administering the changes in law made by this Act, including rules relating to the form of certain information required to be provided by tax officials and the date on which the information must be provided.

SECTION 5. Section 11.13, Tax Code, as amended by this Act, applies beginning with the 2022 tax year.

Explanation: The addition is necessary to increase the amount of the exemption of residence homesteads from ad valorem taxation by a school district from $25,000 to $40,000, protect school districts against the resulting loss in local revenue, authorize the comptroller of public accounts to adopt rules to implement the change in law made by Senate Bill 1, and provide that the change in law made by Senate Bill 1 to Section 11.13, Tax Code, takes effect beginning with the 2022 tax year.

SR 99, In memory of Michael Cao-Truong Nguyen.

The resolution was read.

On motion of Senator Bettencourt and by unanimous consent, the names of the Lieutenant Governor and Senators were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

On motion of Senator Hancock, SR 99 was adopted by a rising vote of the Senate.

In honor of the memory of Michael Cao-Truong Nguyen, the text of the resolution is printed at the end of today's Senate Journal.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Blanco and by unanimous consent, the remarks by Senators Hancock and Whitmire regarding SR 99 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Senator Hancock: Yes, thank you, Mr. President and Members for giving us time just to speak a little bit regarding Michael Nguyen. Michael was a very, very impressive individual from Arlington, Texas, graduated from Lamar High School. In fact he was Mr. Viking at Lamar High School, recognized as Mr. Viking. He was a varsity basketball player, sang in the choir, and an impressive individual. He graduated from Lamar and was attending UTA. And at UTA he was set to graduate in December, but that was cut short by a drunk driver. And so, Michael lost his life, was hit on the 15th, lost his life on the 16th due to this incident that occurred, and was just a very, very loved individual by his family, by his church, very involved in his church. His brother, Andrew, I'm sure, will miss him greatly. They had a great relationship there. Michael was very involved in the music department for his church. He actually played piano for two of the worship groups in his church, cut his first EP and titled Found Me. In fact, I want to read a few of the words of the lyrics that he wrote, that he penned for these. The lyrics, it says, How can it be that one that's, that the one I seek is seeking me, this life I live is not enough for me, I want all of you. Michael today is seeing all of his Father. He devoted himself to Jesus Christ, devoted himself to music and to sharing God's love with others. As a young man he also wrote in a journal. In this journal, he shared about his desire to share the love of God with many others. The world will miss his music, his lyrics. But we know that today, not only did the God he wrote these lyrics for find him, but God called him home and he is comforted today.

And we pray that his family, his extended family, will be also be comforted knowing that he is safe, secure, and he is in the arms of the one that he loved the most, his heavenly Father. Mr. President, I thank you for allowing me time to stop and recognize a young man that led a very rich life, but for a short period of time.

Senator Whitmire: Thank you, Mr. President, Members. Thank you, Senator Hancock, for bringing this resolution and allowing me to join you. Members, if we pause tonight, I know we're united in our belief that parents are not supposed to bury their children. That's the situation that we bring before you tonight. I know the family through Dr. Tran, Theresa Tran that many of you have met, it was her cousin. And I've learned that the Vietnamese family, certainly in Arlington, is so close to one another. Michael had 11 cousins. Dr. Tran was nine years old, and helped raised him as a regular babysitter. The family's devastated, and they're watching tonight and the message I want to send to them and to anyone that can hear my voice is, this body, in solidarity, is rededicating ourselves to the prevention against driving while intoxicated. We have increased the penalties to where now the defendant in this murder, it's what the charge will be, has ruined his life, will go to prison for a long period of time when convicted. But I want the family to know that we feel your pain and we're rededicating ourselves to the prevention. We have to let individuals know there is no excuse for drinking and getting in a car, which becomes a deadly weapon. In the days of Ubers, Lyft, and other means, no excuse will be accepted. So, this young person who was such a model in his community, finished 12th in his graduating class at Lamar there in Arlington, has a grandmother that in her senior stage is having to bury a grandson. His aunts, uncles, his 11 cousins, his parents, can you imagine? The accident happened early Friday morning, and they took him off life support on Saturday. I know we just can't imagine the pain. But we want them to know that this body and our colleagues across the hall will do everything we can to honor him by fighting DWIs going forward. We've got to do more in prevention. Individuals that have a drinking problem, we need to recognize it and give them treatment. But in this instance, justice will be done against the defendant that took this young man's beautiful life. And I would ask you in closing that you pray for Michael's soul and ask the Lord to be with his family. Thank you, Mr. President and Members.

(b) Subject to Subsections (c), (d), and (e) ~~[(e)-(e)]~~, additional state aid under this section through the 2021-2022 school year is equal to the amount by which the loss of local interest and sinking revenue for debt service attributable to the increase in the residence homestead exemption under Section 1-b(c), Article VIII, Texas Constitution, and the additional limitation on tax increases under Section 1-b(d) of that article as proposed by S.J.R. 1, 84th Legislature, Regular Session, 2015, is not offset by a gain in state aid under this chapter.

(b-1) Subject to Subsections (c-1), (d), and (e), additional state aid under this section beginning with the 2022-2023 school year is equal to the amount by which the loss of local interest and sinking revenue for debt service attributable to any increase in the residence homestead exemption under Section 1-b(c), Article VIII, Texas Constitution, as proposed by the 87th Legislature, 3rd Called Session, 2021, is not offset by a gain in state aid under this chapter.

(b) The lesser of the school district's currently adopted maintenance and operations tax rate or the adopted maintenance and operations tax rate for the 2021 tax year is used for the purpose of determining additional state aid under Subsection (a).
